Baroque Serve underwent a post-race veterinary examination which detected mild swelling of the right triceps with marked rigid extension of the leg. Baroque Serve has been stood down from racing for 10 days. Stewards spoke to trainer representative Susan Gittus in relation to Baroque Serve’s race manners approaching the winning post. After viewing the official replays, Stewards were of the opinion that Baroque Serve had breached GAR123 in turning its head outwards and making head and muzzle contact with Lights Out Mick. Acting under the provisions of GAR127(c), Baroque Serve has been stood down from racing for a period of three months, and until the competition of two satisfactory trials.
