Borderline Bella underwent a post-race veterinary examination which detected muscle soreness through the shoulders, neck and chest. Borderline Bella has been stood down from racing for 14 days. Stewards spoke to trainer Sonia Martin regarding Borderline Bella's racing manners. Acting on their own observations and viewing the official replays, Stewards believed Borderline Bella had turned its head outward and visibly eased when entering the home straight, and by doing so had failed to pursue the lure with due commitment throughout the event due to injury. Pursuant to GAR125(1)(a), Borderline Bella has been stood down from racing until the completion of a satisfactory trial.

Imperial Son underwent a post-race veterinary examination which detected muscle soreness in the right shoulder and neck. Imperial Son has been stood down from racing for 5 days. Stewards spoke to trainer representative Michael Sherriff regarding Imperial Son's race manners turning into the home straight. After viewing the official replays, Stewards were of the opinion that Imperial Son had breached GAR123 in turning its head outwards and making head and muzzle contact with Highgate Lebron. Acting under the provisions of GAR127(a), Imperial Son has been stood down from racing for a period of 28 days at Hobart only, and until the competition of a satisfactory trial.
