

1. OBJECTIVE

The objective of this policy is to outline Tasracing's selection process to determine the Tasmanian representatives for the Australian Driving Championship (ADC).

2. DEFINITION

The Defending Champion is the winner of the Australian Driving Championship (ADC) conducted in the immediate prior year.

3. POLICY

- 3.1 A driver is eligible to represent Tasmania if they are currently licensed in Tasmania during the nomination period and have driven in the state for the 3-month period prior to selection.
- 3.2 A driver who is eligible as per clause 3.1 and finished first on the Tasmanian Drivers Premiership in the previous season will be selected as the first Tasmanian representative.
- 3.3 A driver who is eligible as per clause 3.1 and finished second on the Tasmanian Drivers Premiership in the previous season will be selected as the second Tasmanian representative.
- 3.4 A driver who is eligible as per clause 3.1 and finished third on the Tasmanian Drivers Premiership in the previous season will be selected as the emergency Tasmanian representative.
- 3.5 Should any driver, after being selected as the Tasmanian representative, be associated with an activity deemed to bring the sport or Tasracing into disrepute or be found guilty of an offence prior to the commencement of the Australian Driving Championship, may be replaced at the discretion of Tasracing.

4. GENERAL

- 4.1 This policy needs to be read in conjunction with the Harness Racing Australia Australian Driving Championship Guidelines.
- 4.2 Tasracing reserves the right to make the final determination in relation to any aspect of this policy.
