Lease of a Racehorse

General Information

- The Office of Racing Integrity (ORI) registers leases for racing purposes. ORI is not a party to the leases it registers. ORI's registration of a lease does not of itself create any proprietary rights.
- A lease is a private agreement between lessor and lessee which creates proprietary interests as between the parties to the lease. If any dispute arises concerning a lease it is a matter for the parties to settle themselves either in the courts or through mediation. ORI has neither the jurisdiction, nor the competency to determine the private rights of parties in a lease dispute. ORI's only role is to manage its ownership registration system, ensure compliance with the Rules of Racing and determine the eligibility of horses to race.
- Legal advice should be sought in the case of a dispute.
- Even though the Terms & Conditions state that the lessor can recover possession of the horse if the lease is breached, this right is not absolute and a court may intervene and grant relief from forfeiture to the lessee if it is just to do so. Legal advice should be sought about the courts' jurisdiction with respect to forfeiture before entering the lease.
- Insurance of the horse is the responsibility of the lessor.

Syndicates

Any combination of more than 20 owner entities must be registered as a syndicate with a principal racing authority. The name of the registered syndicate must be shown on the application and be signed by the Manager. Whilst it is quite in order for a horse to be registered in the ownership of a company, firm or stud (as defined in AR2) it cannot race in such ownership unless the company, firm or stud has been registered as a syndicate under the Australian Rules of Racing or the horse is leased to individuals. Each registered syndicate entering the ownership of this horse MUST complete the below and pay the subscribed fee.

Lease Disputes

The Office of Racing Integrity, Tasmania receives numerous requests for advice in relation to disputes arising out of the leasing of racehorses. Disputes generally arise from the addition of special clauses which often added to the lease without any real thought being given to the meaning and consequences of those clauses. The Office of Racing Integrity will not take sides in any such disputes and as their resolution through the Courts can often be an expensive and not always satisfactory procedure, everyone involved in leasing of a horse is urged to consider carefully the implications of any special clauses before they are inserted in the standard lease agreement. The existing forms make it clear that the Office of Racing Integrity accepts no responsibility for the due observance or non observance of the lease arrangements and if there are any disputes, the Office of Racing Integrity only has limited powers to intervene. Accordingly, ORI urges everyone concerned to give more consideration in future to the wording and consequences of any of these clauses. It may be appropriate to provide, in case a dispute should arise, that the matter should first be referred to arbitration by a neutral person to be agreed upon in advance. Such provision should be incorporated in the lease itself or in a letter of agreement. In that event there should be provision as to the costs of the arbitration and whether either party is entitled to legal representation. Other problem areas arise in relation to the desire of many owners to nominate the trainer by whom a particular horse is to be trained and where and when it is to be spelled, etc. Here again ORI urges everyone concerned to take far more care about these matters and to agree on all these matters in advance so that no misunderstandings arise later when it is often very difficult to do anything about them.

Appointment of Representative (or Racing Manager)

AR 2 “Manager” means a person registered with Racing Australia as the manager of a horse owned or leased by a natural person, a group of natural persons, or a Syndicate. Unless established otherwise: (a) the first named person appearing in the Certificate of Registration or other official ownership or leasing record held by Racing Australia will be deemed to be the manager (subject to AR63(1)); and (b) if a horse is owned or leased by more than one Syndicate, the first named person appearing in the Certificate of Registration or other official ownership or leasing record held by Racing Australia will be deemed to be the manager.

- AR 63(1) (1) The Manager may be removed or replaced from that position by written notice signed by the owners, lessees or Syndicate members representing more than 50% of the ownership of the horse.
- (2) The Manager of a horse is of their own right (and without separate express authorisation by the owners, lessees or Syndicate members) entitled to: (a) enter, nominate, accept or scratch a horse from any race; (b) engage a jockey to ride a horse in any race; (c) receive any prize money or trophy won by a horse; (d) act for and represent the owners, lessees or Syndicate members in relation to the horse for the purpose of these Australian Rules, except that where a provision of the TOR Rules (and/or a term of the STA or the COA, if relevant) specifies a process, requirement, or course of action, that provision or term binds the manager in the event of any conflict or inconsistency with this subrule.
- (3) The entry or nomination of a horse for any race must state the name of the Manager.
- (4) The trainer of a horse who enters, nominates, accepts or scratches a horse is, absent proof of an agreement between the trainer and owners to the contrary, deemed to have done so with the authority of the manager and all other nominators.

Privacy

The Registrar of Racehorses collects information about you when you submit this form to lease a racehorse. The Registrar will use that information to assess your application and if approved, your ongoing status as an owner. To do that, the Registrar may disclose your information to Principal Racing Authorities. On occasion, the Registrar may disclose names and contact details to racing organisations including race clubs and owners or breeders associations. However, this information will only be disclosed when the Registrar is of the opinion that such communication may be of interest or benefit to you. If you do want to receive such communication, you may advise the Registrar of that fact at any time. You can gain access to and request changes be made to your information held by the Registrar at any time. You do not have to supply the information requested, but if the information is not provided the Registrar may refuse to accept your application.

Personal Information

To assist in making ownership determinations, the Registrar must assess the fitness and propriety of each applicant. This assessment requires the collection of sensitive information. In order to protect each individual's privacy certain necessary information has not been requested on the application form, however, all applicants must read the following questions.

- (1) In the past 10 years, have you been convicted of, or is there a pending charge against you, for any offence involving:
 - (a) An indictable criminal offence or violence against a person or dishonest activity; or
 - (b) Offence under animal welfare or prevention of cruelty to animals legislation; or
 - (c) An undischarged bankrupt or taking advantage of laws relating to bankruptcy.

- (2) Have you ever been convicted under the Australian Rules of Racing or rules of any Principal Racing Authority?

If any applicant should answer "yes" to any of these questions, the applicant must notify the Registrar in writing prior to the lodgement of the application. Such notification must include full details of the conduct in question. The Registrar will advise in writing within seven days of having received such notification. That advice should be retained by the applicant as evidence that the appropriate notification has been made. You are advised that should it be established that an individual has neglected or failed to truthfully respond to questions 1(a), 1(b), 1(c) or 2, this application and any other application concerning the individual may be refused or cancelled at any time. If the notification has previously been advised to the Registrar, there is no need to do so again unless subsequent charges or convictions have been recorded against you since you submitted said notification to the Registrar. A Principal Racing Authority or the Stewards may punish any person who makes any false or misleading statement or declaration in respect of any matter in connection with the administration or control of racing under AR 229(1)(h). Inaccuracies or omissions may also lead to penalties and refusal or cancellation of the Registration of this horse (AR31).

Assignment and Licence

Due to the essential role that Racing Australia (RA) plays in administering, promoting and reporting on thoroughbred horse racing, as well as providing racing materials, RA must be able freely to use all intellectual property rights (including but not limited to copyright) that may subsist in the name, image, jockey silks and other indicia associated with this horse.

In order to allow RA to use these intellectual property rights without impediment, as a condition of the horse's registration, you agree that RA owns all right, title or interest (including but not limited to copyright, goodwill and reputation) in the name, image, jockey silks or other indicia associated with that horse, whether existing before or after you sign this form. To the extent that you own any such intellectual property rights by force of law, you must assign them to RA. You must also undertake to RA that you will not apply to register as a trademark any such indicia or do anything that will or may adversely affect or otherwise limit the ability of RA, the principal racing authorities or race clubs to administer, promote or report on thoroughbred racing (or authorise any other person to do so). You may request permission from RA to register a trade mark associated with the horse, and RA may accept or reject in its absolute discretion and subject to any conditions it deems necessary or desirable.

In exchange for the agreement, assignment and undertakings, upon registration of the horse RA will grant to you a non-exclusive, royalty-free and non-transferable licence to (a) use the name, image, jockey silks and other indicia associated with the horse where RA owns the intellectual property in such indicia for any purpose related to racing, training, promoting and otherwise dealing with the horse, including merchandising; and (b) sub-licence the same to any other person.
