If the above named Stable Employee will not be riding trackwork, who will be undertaking that activity while horse/s are in Tasmania?

If your trackwork rider is the holder of a Visiting Stablehand permit, then they are ONLY permitted to undertake these activities with respect to horses registered to the Visiting Trainer.

A Visiting Trainer who will also be performing trackwork duties is not permitted to ride horses registered to Tasmanian trainers unless they hold the appropriate licence in Tasmania which includes the submission of a full medical examination report and a riding assessment by Stewards. Permission is only granted to ride the horse/s trained under the Visiting Trainer Permit.
