

OUR WILLOW – Showed gait speed to lead the event.

UNOBETTER – Hung inwards despite efforts from the driver contacting numerous marker pegs and racing inside pegs. Stewards advised the trainer that the gelding must trial to the satisfaction of stewards on one occasion prior to racing again.

BOLT OF COBARGO – Raced wide in the early stages to gain the position outside the leader.

The announcement of “All clear” was delayed as stewards wished to view the official patrol films as UNOBETTER raced inside several marker pegs making the home turn. Stewards after taking evidence from Driver Jacob Duggan in the presence of Trainer Adrian Duggan who was deputizing for trainer Gregory Scott were satisfied that the gelding tended to lay inwards despite efforts from the driver to shift outwards and made no ground up during this stage. Stewards were satisfied that the gelding only made ground up over the final 100m after it was moved outwards to its correct line to finish in second place. Stewards gave the “all clear” on the judge’s numbers.

RACE 2 – PFEIFFER CRANES STAKES – 2150m Mobile

HES APPLES – Broke free of interference in the front straight to receive the bell. Was placed on his last chance to race truly. Had to be checked by its driver to avoid a galloping runner. Underwent a post race veterinarian examination and was found to have laceration to its coronet band. Trainer advised that the gelding will be stood down for a period of two weeks and a certificate of fitness must be supplied before being nominated to race again.

SHARMEY – Had to be checked by its driver because of a galloping runner in front.

RACE 5 – LADBROKES RACING CLUB PACE – 2150m Mobile

INDELIBLE – Shortly after the start the mare broke gait and galloped for a short distance resulting in the mare falling to the track dislodging its driver. The mare was captured and taken into the inside of the track.

The mare was attended by the club's veterinarian surgeon on site. Trainer B Dornauf was advised by the veterinarian surgeon, that the mare will require further veterinarian attention on returning to his stables. The mare will be placed out of the draw and must provide a certificate of fitness prior to being nominated for a race again.
